The Ultimate

Indulge yourself.

Discover why Airstream defies comparison.

Airstream is the ultimate travel experience in today's age of lowered expectations and embarrassment at excellence. It is for those whose vision drives them beyond the commonplace.

Go visit your nearest Airstream dealer. See for yourself all the reasons why Airstream represents the crowning achievement in quality, luxury and prestige. With the amenities and value you demand and the comfort you deserve.

Discover the incomparable towing ease and aerodynamic fuel efficiency that only an Airstream can provide.

When you purchase an Airstream you can expect a full measure of dividends in not only quality — but also investment potential. More than one third of recently sold Airstream trailers sold for more than the original purchase price.

Your escape unparalleled.

Imagine travelling to faraway places and retaining all of the luxuries of a well-appointed home. Rich hickory hardwoods. Cedar-lined closets. Tasteful fabrics and plush surroundings. So indulge yourself. Only a test tow will convince you that the 1987 Airstreams can take you beyond your dreams to a new and exciting world of travel pleasure.

New Excella "1000" package.

The new Excella "1000" optional package contains a variety of previously unavailable features like a VCR, real wood blinds and upgraded interior along with special Airstream jackets, glasses and hats.

Airstream trailers are available in a wide variety of floorplans and lengths from 23' to 34'.

The 32' Excella features a convertible dinette with storage below.

Extra Airstream Benefits.

When you own an Airstream you also have available unique extra benefits:

- WBCCI Membership — The Wally Byam Caravan Club is an organization of almost 45,000 friends who are Airstream owners and have local, national and international rallies and caravans.
- Airstream Rallies and Caravans — In addition to the WBCCI events, Airstream also hosts a variety of Canadian, Alaskan and Mexican caravans and other rallies for owners of all Airstream recreational vehicles.
- Silver Key Checkout — A three stage check out begins at the factory and continues after your first 1,000 miles or 60 days with another free checkout and inspection.

Full-Size Satisfaction

I am enclosing a picture of our current rig—a sparkling 1966 Airstream 17-footer, a superb 1986 Ford Ranger and a 14-foot Chrysler cartop boat (with a 9.8 Mercury tucked in the cap).

Our former outfit was about worn out from touring the Lower 48 and Canada for 18 years. After our two daughters went off to start families of their own, we decided to get something smaller and more economical.

Half Pint, as we have christened the comparatively rare little Airstream, was pre-owned by a couple in Michigan and had been given good care. We have added the air-conditioner, TV antenna, new foam and upholstery, carpeting and a spring rocker. Altogether, a little jewel!

The Ford Ranger, with fuel injection on the V-6, is a stout tow vehicle that handled the 7100-pound gross combined weight rating through a 6300-mile, 11-week trip last summer,
